

Arbor and Bird Day Bulletin (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Josephine Corliss Preston

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Arbor and Bird Day Bulletin Arbor Day offers an opportunity for a community program of interest to the parents and citizens as well as to the children, for the welfare of this state is dependent to a large extent upon the welfare of its forest and orchard trees. In the timbered parts of the state, the question of forest fire prevention should be taken up at some length, with possibly a talk by a ranger or fire warden. The best methods of clearing logged-off lands and reforestation are topics sufficiently allied to be appropriate. Other subjects will suggest themselves to a teacher who is awake to local conditions. In the fruit growing localities, a lecture by a horticultural expert, or by a plant pathologist on the insect and fungus foes of the fruit trees, would prove attractive. In any case, the pupils should be impressed with the economic value of the states arboreal resources, the annual export of the tree fruit products being valued at approximately $9,000,000 and the annual cut of timber at $43,000,000....

READ ONLINE

[3.76 MB]

Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite publications. It is actually really fascinating through reading through period of time. It has been printed in an extremely basic way in fact it is just after I finished reading through this ebook by which basically transformed me, change the way in my opinion.

-- David Weber

Totally one of the best publications I have ever gone through. It really is packed with knowledge and wisdom I discovered this pdf from my dad and I recommended this book to discover.

-- Madisyn Kuhlman