 Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A SYNOPSIS OF ESTAMBAI ESTAMBAI is an autobiography of a simple town girl nick-named Estambai as a child. The book depicts the author s early years at school, her privilege of a pleasurable school life except for some harassment and teasing that she had to endure from other youths in her neighbourhood. The author gives some anecdotes of incidents and people that impacted her life as a growing child. These include the concept of modern day child labour in Chapter Two which she projects in a positive light. In Chapter Three, she describes the domineering actions of the family barber who delighted in putting a centre parting to her hair cut after every barbing session. Unknowingly to the barber, that parting was stylish but hurtful to Esther as it provided the opportunity for the youths on the street to tease her by chanting . Esther, centre par.t, gbogbogba.estambai.: The book derived it s title from the tauntings. Other anecdotes are reminiscences of some events and people in her home. These include some complex religious practices...
