Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Beginning Bowling Bowling is today one of the nation s most popular recreational activities. Almost every community, regardless of size, has a bowling establishment where individuals and league teams may bowl. At the present time, it is estimated that nearly 30,000,000 bowlers spend more than one billion dollars on bowling every year. By 1970, the number of bowlers is expected to increase to 40,000,000. Of all indoor sports, bowling is by far the most popular. Bowling is a sport not reserved exclusively for the athlete. Elements of size, physical strength, and so on, have little influence on ones skill as a bowler. Nor is the enjoyment of the activity limited by the age or sex of the participant. People of all ages, children and senior citizens, men and women, can participate in this sport with a high degree of competence. Still, bowling demands enough physical activity to provide much of the exercise needed for maintaining good health. The need for and value of regular participation in some form of moderate exercise has been given a...
