Decidedly. This is our best point of sailing, and our best wind, too. We can t be going less than ten knots, said the captain, looking critically over the bows at the water racing alongside. I can almost make out the name on her stern now with the naked eye, replied the other, staring hard ahead through the drift and spray. Have you a glass there, Mr. O Neill? asked the captain. Yes, sir, here it is, answered that gentleman, handing him a long, old-fashioned, cumbrous brass telescope, which he at once adjusted and focused on the ship they were chasing. Ah! said the elder of the two speakers, a small, slender man, standing lightly poised on the topgallant forecastle with the careless confidence of a veteran seaman, as he examined the chase through the glass which the taller and younger officer handed him; I can read it quite plainly with this.
