Dont talk about rights, Jerry. I hate the word. Do tell me, Sandra. It makes me hot all over--like wearing a hair shirt--to think of the smug Pyecraft, after consulting papa, coming to claim his own! I shall simply tell him the things impossible, Sandra replied. Decline with thanks, you mean, like the heroines in novels, with all your dignity on its hind legs, eh I should like to hear the poaching Pyecraft! Id kick the brewer. You couldnt. Hes quite as big as you. I could try! What will your father say when he hears youve chucked the fellow He!l say, It seems a pity. That all Well, I can understand: hes too busy fighting mine, said Jerry, to have time for domestic details. But what will Mrs. Drew say Shell say, My dear child, Im sorry you didnt see your way to make that estimable young man happy. But, seriously, if they worry me Ill call Uncle Andrew to the rescue. Yes; there is always old Andrew to fall back upon, said err. I cant help thinking he meant us to care for one another. Ever since we were children he brought us together. Uncle Andrew has behaved like a dear! said Sandra. I shouldnt feel safe if I wasnt sure he was on our side. Here, I. regret to say, a most ridiculous thing happened. Suddenly I sneezed violently before I realised the danger or could...
